Herman Coppes, aged 16, has confessed to the murder of Mrs. Manny Sleaf and her two small children at Elgin, 1.

Sir Charles Day Rose, a member of parliament, died of excitement in London, following his first trip in an airship.

Janet Urie, a two-year-old child in Chicago, can talk baby talk in three languages and is preparing to take up the study of Italian.

Mississippi has not only disfranchised the negroes, but has passed a law to make it unlawful to take a tip. So far, it has not been made a felony to eat a watermelon or hunt a 'possum.

Secretary Bryan and Speaker Clark met at a luncheon and resumed friendly relations Saturday. The Speaker's statement, however, shows that he does not yet realize that he defeated himself at Baltimore.

Slow-working snake venom was the cause of the death of Carl Hagenbeck, the animal collector, on April 14, according to the physicians who attended him. He was bitten several years ago and the venom eventually affected his liver.

Louisville will consider an ordinance to stop skating on the streets and relegate the amusements of the public to the parks and play grounds of the city. Several people have been badly hurt by skating collisions on the streets.

Chas. C. Glover, the Washington banker who had a street fight with Congressman Sims, of Tennessee, over something he said in a speech, is to be tried by the House under the law that Congressmen shall not be held personally responsible for their public utterances in debate in the House. It is strongly intimated that Glover may be sent to jail.

Pains In the Stomach.

If you continually complain of pains in the stomach, your liver or your kidneys are out of order. Neglect may lead to dropsy, kidney trouble, diabetes or Bright's disease. Thousands recommend Electric Bitters as the very best stomach and kidney medicine made. H. T. Alston, of Raleigh, N. C., who suffered with pain in the stomach and back, writes: "My kidneys were deranged and my liver did not work right. I suffered much, but Electric Bitters was recommended and I improved from the first dose. I now feel like a new man." It will improve you, too. Only 50c and $1.00. Recommended by All Druggists.

Brothers Meet After 34 Years.

B. B. Cochran, of Oklahoma, and his brother T. G. Cochran, of this county, met here Saturday for the first time in 34 years. The latter is the father of Mrs. Ben Bradshaw, and lives with his daughter, where his brother is visiting him.

New Tin Shop.

I have opened up a tin shop in the building formerly occupied by the New Era, West 7th street, and I am prepared to do all kinds of metal work, such as roofing, guttering, galvanized iron work, etc. Also repair bicycles, guns and other work of this kind. Best of service and all work guaranteed. Prices reasonable. My brother, Jerry Weaver, will assist me in the business. Give me a trial and you will be satisfied. Phone 71-2 A. J. WEAVER.

Getting to the Front.
The man who wishes to get to the front must not spend too much time turning to see what the men back of him are doing.

PUTS HIS SOUL IN PICTURE

Japanese Artist Gets Spirit in Work
That It May Be Given Again to Beholder.

The safety of the nation seems to be fairly well taken care of, but if there is one thing more than another which needs a master's care, that one thing is art, especially futurist art. America has not quite decided about futurist art. We are never sure whether a thing is good until we know what we are supposed to think of it. The newspapers have ridiculed the futurist art and common people have dared laugh at it. Frankly, of course, Americans prefer good plain pictures that don't even require the catalogue for identification, but one is inclined to think that in art as in poetry there must be soul in obscurity because we cannot see it.

If it were possible we might transplant Japanese art. The something besides itself in a Japanese picture is really visible, and soul helps sense as much as sense helps soul. Japanese art, however, grew from the old art of Chinese writing. The Chinese believed that written characters lived, and not only spelled words, but expressed various sentiments in themselves. The Japanese artist creates a living thing. He puts his spirit into his painting so that it may be given again to the beholder. If he accepts money for his paintings they lose their soul. Japanese art is, therefore, impossible to America. An art that grew from our writing would be worse than futurist. If our artists were not paid for their pictures we should have no artists. Perhaps the best we can do, if we must get away from our own common sense plain pictures, is to take up something along the futurist line. We may not enjoy it and it may spoil the wall paper, but it may be the proper thing after all.

POETIC REALISM

"Yes; I have pictured my sweet heart in my verses."
"Oh! does she limp?"

EVENING OF CHANGES.

Turned into a wake and afterwards into the celebration of a birth, a wedding feast near Tralee, County Kerry, Ireland, had a peculiar outcome. While a merry party was in the height of the enjoyment of the wedding feast of one of the members of the household the guests were shocked to learn of the death of a two-year-old child who had been ill for some time, but not seriously. The wedding party then resolved itself into a wake, the traces of the festival being removed. While the wake was in progress it was announced that a birth had just taken place in the house, the mother being a near relative of the family.

HEARD AT THE CLUB.

Griggs—I'm sorry about Brown's failure. He's a brick if ever there was one.

Briggs—Then it is not unnatural that he should go to the wall—

PART OF IT.

"That cook's temper will break up our home."

"It's already started in on the crockery."

NO WALKING FOR HIM.

"What walk in life has your son attempted?"

"No walk at all; he's in the auto business."

HIS RIGHT.

"That speaker says he has a right to have the floor."

"Why so?"

"Because he is a carpet dealer."

WRONG TEMPERATURE.

"Miss Jones acted so queerly about that proposed trip to the tropics."

"How did she act queerly?"

"She was so cold about it."

Swat Him!

Consider now the little fly, whose name is rhymed with "Baby-bye." He has his birth in the manure, crawls forth and loiters in the sewer, and, smeared with deadly typhoid germs, he leaves his brother maggots, unfurls his dainty wings of silk and dumps his microbes in the milk, where their huge numbers mount and mount, increasing the bacterial count, until they reach the food supply some woman feeds her "Baby-bye."

The fly comes gaily unto us, his feet all gummed with poison-pus, and singing clear his song so sweet, alights and cleans them on the meat. He gathers scarlet-fever spores and leaves them on the walls and floors; he is not proud, and oft will stoop to carry heavy loads of croup, and place it where its awful death may come and go with baby's breath. Oh, do not call him indolent! He calls that summer day misspent in which he's failed to load the breeze with the live germs of some disease; a d if he finds them not, though hurt, he'll be content with just plain dirt.

Consider well the little fly, who buzzes so 'round "Baby-bye."—Farm and Fireside.

Coughs and Consumption.

Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The wisest thing to do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough, and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living today." Known for forty-three years as the best remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by All Druggists.

Illinois Has New Plan.

A bill legitimizing children born out of wedlock and making the birth of a child to a man and a woman constitute a common-law marriage, dissoluble only by divorce, will be introduced in the next session of the Illinois Legislature.

THREE RULES FOR HAPPINESS

Celebrated Neurologist Tells Students to "Play Ball, Get Busy and Saw Wood."

Dr. George L. Walton, the neurologist, lectured recently at the Harvard Medical school on how to live through a life of happiness rather than one of fret and tears.

He said the present time was a less emotional period than that of fifty years ago, but that there was still much nervousness. If there were less of argument, swearing and fretting, and more willingness to listen to criticism in a sane manner, there would be few cases of nervous prostration, he said.

The workingman should come home each day tired and happy, instead of tired and cross, Dr. Walton declared. He thought that the pooling of enormous wealth was a forerunner of the doom of civilization. The child of today, he said, after crawling in its crib, has discarded the "Now I lay me down to sleep" in favor of "Don't mention death to me or I will lie awake all night."

Three rules for happiness laid down by the doctor were: "Don't harbor a grudge," "Don't live in the past" and "Don't play the martyr." His favored rules for a life of almost unalloyed bliss are: "Play ball, get busy and saw wood."

BOY TICKLED CONAN DOYLE

Is Rewarded for Instance of Sherlock
Holmes Talent and Then Pulls Newspaper.

The following story is told by the French weekly, L'Opinion:

"As Sir Conan Doyle was entering the Carlton hotel a boy said to him:

"The chalk dust on your clothes shows you have been playing billiards; the fact of its not having been removed shows you were tired after a long game; your frown shows that you lost; one of your boots is stained with Soho mud; yet you do not bend your legs in walking like billiard professionals.

"Therefore I conclude that you disputed the amateur billiards championship at the Orme rooms this afternoon, and that you lost."

"The novelist," continues the French paper, "was so pleased with this instance of Sherlock Holmes talent that he gave the boy a sovereign. Thereupon the youngster pulled out of his pocket a copy of an evening paper giving Sir Arthur's photograph and a full description of the match."

HAS COFFIN FOR SALE.

A mistake of a word has caused a Kilkenny (Ireland) philanthropist to find himself with a coffin on his hands. He ordered it at the earnest request of the relatives of a poor old body reported to have died in the workhouse, to save her the indignity of a pauper's burial. When it was taken to the workhouse, however, the supposed corpse was found smoking a pipe and quite convalescent. The doctor, it seems, had written "acids" after the old woman's name for the guidance of the nurse, and the nearest the workhouse master could come to deciphering the professional calligraphy was "dead." Hence the notification of the grave, and the other funeral arrangements—all of which were countermanded except the coffin.

PUZZLED BOY.

Willie—Pa, what are ancestors?
Father—Well, I am one of yours. Your grandpa is another.
Willie—Oh! Then why is it that folks brag about them?—London Opinion.

STATUS QUO.

Maud—Does Kitty love Jack well enough to marry him?
Marie—Oh, yes; but Jack believes in letting well enough alone.

COULD BUT DID NOT WANT TO.

"Tired? And you said you could lie dancing?"
"I could. And I would, if I danced with you much longer."

DRAWBACK.

"I have, alas! a sunny lot."
"Why do you repine about that?"
"Because most suburbanites want shady ones."

THE RIVALS.

"What will the horse say now to the cry that the auto is king?"
"I think his say is likely to be, 'neigh, neigh.'"
